Description

From the church of Garzeno, we hike up above the village, until reaching the fork close to the aqueduct's building: we cross the meadow on the right and take the path to the clearing of l'Avolo. We climb above the cabins and follow the track to the church of S. Anna. (955 m, 3.2 km); we walk past a trattoria and hike down along the asphalt road, which we leave at the first switchback and turn left instead (trail marker). Soon we reach the cabins of Cagnao, we cross a meadow and take the path that leads into the woods. We walk downhill on the cobblestone mule track and then on the cart-way that leads to the small community of Cragno (756 m, 5.7 km) where, at a switchback, we take the mule track on the left, which leaves the mountain and leads into the valley. At Stabiè we leave the cart-way and descend into the village of Levia; from there, we follow the asphalt road that connects the mountains of the Liro creek valley until we approach the community of Nessa. On the right we find a path that goes through the woods, climbs up the valley's side and reaches the clearing of l'Agnone (907 m, 9.9 km). Beyond the farmsteads of Lambrosetto and Badalucco, we reach the bridge of Budanghel (983 m, 12.1 km) and follow the gently sloping track that leads to Piazzolo and the cabins of Piazza (954 m, 15.9 km), then continue on the steeply declining mule track to the bridge of Vincino on the Liro creek. We climb on the opposite slope and reach a dirt road that leads to the main road coming from Dosso del Liro (Pian delle Castagne; 934 m, 19,5 km). We follow it downhill to Carzan, and then take a cobblestone mule track to the village of Dosso del Liro (688 m, 21.8 km). The path continues above the first houses and, at a switchback, curls to the left and follows a trail that goes around the valley and reaches Arecc (695 m, 23.5 km); from there, we walk along the hillside until the church of the Madonna di Gorghiglio and the provincial road. We turn right on the street and arrive in Peglio.
